Application as Exhibit C (the “Powell Declaration”) and the declaration of Richard Silbert, attached to the Application as Exhibit D (the “Silbert Declaration”); and this Court having jurisdiction to consider the Application and the relief requested therein in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a)-(b) and 1334(b) and the Amended Standing Order of Reference M-431, dated January 31, 2012 (Preska, C.J.); and consideration of the Application and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and venue being proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and due and proper notice of the Application and the opportunity for a hearing thereon having been provided; and there being no objections to the Application, and no additional notice or a hearing being required; and the Court having considered the Powell Declaration and the Silbert Declaration, filed contemporaneously with the Application; and after due deliberation the Court having determined that Cornerstone does not hold or represent an adverse interest to the Debtors or their estates and that it is disinterested under section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code; and the Court having further determined that Cornerstone’s retention is necessary and in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors, and all parties in interest, and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Application establish good and sufficient cause for the relief granted herein; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Application is granted as set forth herein.
2. The Debtors are authorized to retain Cornerstone as consultants to the Debtors with respect to the Cornerstone Services, effective nunc pro tunc to January 14, 2020, and Cornerstone is authorized to perform the Cornerstone Services described in the Application.
3. Cornerstone shall file fee applications for allowance of its compensation and reimbursement of its expenses with respect to services rendered in these chapter 11 cases with this Court in accordance with, and be compensated pursuant to, sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, as the case may be, and the applicable Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, and fee and expense guidelines and orders of this Court.

3. Cornerstone shall provide reasonable notice to the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases before implementing any increases in the rates set forth in the Application for professionals providing the Cornerstone Services.

4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Engagement Letter, its indemnification provisions are hereby modified and restated in its entirety as follows:

- (a) All requests by Cornerstone for payment of indemnity pursuant to the Engagement Letter shall be made by means of an application (interim or final as the case may be) and shall be subject to review by the Court to ensure payment of such indemnity conforms to the terms of the Engagement Letter and is reasonable based upon the circumstances of the litigation or settlement in respect of which indemnity is sought; provided, however, that in no event shall Cornerstone be indemnified in the case of its own bad-faith, self-dealing, breach of fiduciary duty (if any), gross negligence or willful misconduct;
- (b) In the event that Cornerstone seeks reimbursement from the Debtors for reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with a request by Cornerstone for payment of indemnity pursuant to the Engagement Letter, as modified by this Order, the invoices and supporting time records from such attorneys shall be included in Cornerstone's own application (both interim and final) and such invoices and time records shall be subject to the Fee Guidelines and the approval of the Court under the standards of sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code without regard to whether such attorney has been retained under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code and without regard to whether such attorneys' services satisfy section 330(a)(3)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code; and
- (c) Cornerstone shall not be entitled to reimbursement by the Debtors for any fees, disbursements and other charges of Cornerstone's counsel other than those incurred in connection with a request of Cornerstone for payment of indemnity.

5. The limitation of liability section in paragraph 9 of the Engagement Letter is deemed to be of no force or effect with respect to the services to be provided pursuant to this Order.

6. Notwithstanding anything in the Application or the Engagement Letter to the contrary, if Cornerstone terminates this engagement by giving written notice to PPLP at least 7 days before the effective date of termination in accordance with Section 5 of the Engagement Letter, Cornerstone shall remain entitled to any fees and expenses accrued but not yet paid prior to such termination, subject to Court approval of (a) such termination and (b) any fees and expenses accrued and not yet paid under the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any applicable orders of the Court.

7. Notwithstanding anything in the Application or the Engagement Letter, including, without limitation, paragraph 11 thereof, to the contrary, during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, this Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to any matters, claims, rights or disputes arising out of and/or pertaining to Cornerstone's engagement and the implementation of this Order until such jurisdiction is relinquished.

8. The relief granted herein shall be binding upon any chapter 11 trustee appointed in any of these Chapter 11 Cases or upon any chapter 7 trustee appointed in the event of a subsequent conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7.

9. Notice of the Application as provided therein is good and sufficient notice of such Application and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

10. Notwithstanding any provision in the Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary, the terms and conditions of this Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

11. The Debtors are authorized to take all reasonable actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order in accordance with the Application.

12. In the event of any inconsistency between the Application, the Engagement Letter and this Order, the terms of this Order shall govern.

13. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.
